To be Better off Next Year.

Our advice to farmers is to raise more sheep, more cattle, more hogs, more clover, more cow peas, more rape, and less corn, less timothy hay and no tobacco at all. The good wife, of course, will do her part in raising chickens, turkeys and ducks and making plenty of butter to all farmers who here take our made his escape and was never savingly, dutifully, and in loving surrendered in New York and remembrance of their Creator asked to be brought back to Lexand their life helpmate, they will ington for trial of the murder of be far better off next Thanksgiving day than they have been ever before at this time of the year. Try it.

Patronize and help your paper as you would any other enterprise because it helps you, and not as an act of charity.

Death of Richard Conner.

Richard Connor, aged about 58 years, died at his home in Montgomery county Tuesday. He was a native of this county, going to Montgomery county about twenty-five years ago and engaging in the stock business, through which he had amassed a fortune.

Retaring from active business few months ago, Connor purchased a fine farm. He is survived by a wife and several chil-

Died in Alabama.

The many friends of Mr. Geo. Clayton will be shocked to learn of his death which occured at his home in Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 4th. Mr. Clayton had been in ill health for more than a year and his death was not unexpected. The family lived in Clay City for a number of years and had many friends here, Besides the widow he leaves two daughters, Mrs. John Savage, of Riverside, Ala. and Mrs. John Graham, of Birmingham.

The Shelby county grand jury has adjourned without making any indictments for the lynching of two negroes at Shelbyville a short time ago. How could this grand jury be expected to make such an indictment when no one knows how many men in the jury was also in the mob.

Mrs. A. E. Barnett, of Mt. Sterling, visited her brother, Judge Fletcher this week.
